

IT'S NOT TOO

Extension
UtahStateUniversity.

LATE TO

VACCINATE

Reduce the risk of severe flu-related illness by 40-60%.

WHO?

Everyone ages 6 months and older.

WHEN

Fall, ideally by the end of October.

For more information, consult your health care provider.

IT'S NOT TOO

Extension
UtahStateUniversity.

LATE TO VACCINATE

Seasonal infections such as COVID-19 and flu are rapidly spreading. It is not too late to protect your health by getting vaccinated.

WHO?

Most people 6 months and older should consider the flu vaccine and COVID-19 vaccine or booster.

WHEN

As soon as you can this fall. It is safe to get the flu and COVID-19 vaccines together.

For more information, consult your health care provider.